

BRAIN BUILDING IN PROGRESS

Resources for Early Learning

Supporting Older
Infants' Learning

Resources for Further Learning

Find more information on supporting older infants' learning.

Giving Children Nonverbal Cues about Words Boosts Vocabularies. (June 24, 2013). Science Newsline. University of Chicago.

<http://www.sciencenewsline.com/summary/2013062422510021.html>

Lally, J. Ronald. (November 2009). The Science and Psychology of Infant-Toddler Care: How an Understanding of Early Learning Has Transformed Child Care. ZERO TO THREE, pp. 47–53.

http://zerotothree.org/site/DocServer/Lally_30-2.pdf

Resources for Early Learning. Media-rich learning resources for educators, parents, and caregivers of children.

<http://www.resourcesforearlylearning.org>

Why Do Toddlers Bite? Finding the Right Response. ZERO TO THREE.

<http://www.zerotothree.org/child-development/challenging-behavior/chew-on-this-resources-on-biting.html>