

Unit 7, Week 2

Weekly Materials

- 3 whole apples (red, green, yellow) and slices of each type (one for each child); pictures or stickers of each apple
- 3 whole fresh fruits that look very different inside (such as an orange, a peach, and a melon); pre-cut pieces of these fruits; pictures or stickers of these fruits
- Between the Lions alphabet chart (or similar)
- bean seeds, grass seeds, and onion bulbs planted in Week 1
- beans
- camera
- chart paper
- construction paper (one sheet per child)
- crayons
- fruit with seeds
- glass of water
- gourd
- graph drawn on chart paper with 4–5 rows, each row labeled with a sticker or picture of one type of apple (red, green, yellow, etc.)
- grown plant
- letter card: “Gg”
- live flowering plant with visible seeds
- magnetic letters “G” and “g” (multiple sets)
- magnifying lenses
- markers, pencils, pens
- name cards
- name chart

Unit 7, Week 2 (CONTINUED)

- nonstandard measuring tools (small stacking cubes, construction paper cut into strips, paper clips, string, blocks, etc.)
- paper
- photos from previous explorations with plants
- pictures of fruit trees/plants
- pictures of gardens of various sizes and types
- pictures of objects that begin with /g/ (garden, gate, gift, girl, guitar, goldfish, gorilla, goat, goose, gourd, etc.)
- pictures or books of various plants
- plant that is sprouting (from Week 1)
- “Plants All Around” chart
- plants and corresponding seeds (dandelion/dandelion seeds, pumpkin/pumpkin seeds, sunflower/sunflower seeds)
- plastic flowerpots
- plastic plates
- potting soil
- red food coloring
- science notebooks
- sentence chart
- sentence strips
- small bags (one for each child)
- sunflower seeds
- sunflower stickers
- tape
- water
- white flower with a stem (such as a white carnation)
- word card: garden

Books

Jack's Garden by Henry Cole

Watch a boy's backyard garden grow—from seeds to sprouts to buds and finally to a beautiful flower garden in full bloom.

Flower Garden by Eve Bunting

A little girl and her dad plant a surprise garden for Mom's special day.

Videos

"Peep Plants a Seed" (PEEP show) (0:08:45)

"Exploring Small Spaces" (PEEP live-action clip) (0:01:28)

"You Never Hear the Garden Grow" (BTL clip) (0:00:43)

"Word Morph: gold—goose—gourd" (BTL clip) (0:00:11)

"Words Beginning with 'g'" (BTL clip) (0:00:24)

Playlist

Unit 7, Week 2 Media Assets (BTL and PEEP)

URL: <http://resourcesforearlylearning.org/children/>